St. Matthew Church | 216 Scribner Ave. | Norwalk, CT 06854

Many families in the parish have lost their jobs and are having a hard time making ends meet. So I've established a fund to seek tax-deductible donations for those in real need. You can make a donation through our envelope company, Our Sunday Visitor, www.osvhub.com/stmatthewnorwalk/funds/st-matthew-parishioners-in-need.

A link can also be found on our parish website. Or, you can mail in a donation to the church, too. I'm pledging the first donation of $250 toward this cause. Grateful for all you can do to help.

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER

My Dear Friends,

Today begins the greatest week of the year for Christians. We believe. We belong. We hope. And hope will never leave us disappointed. No doubt, the way we will celebrate this week will be different, worshipping from our homes—but know this: God's love is unchanging. We will journey with the disciples of Jesus this week: from grief, despair and confusion to faith, hope and inexpressible joy.

Fr. Sunil and I will Live-Stream the Easter Triduum Liturgies so you can participate from your homes, beginning Palm Sunday on Facebook Live: @StMatthewNorwalk. For those who are not on Facebook, the video links will be on our website: StMatthewNorwalk.org.

The Liturgy Programs will be emailed to you and posted to our website so you can follow along. Although Blessed Palms will not be distributed on Palm Sunday, they will be distributed at a later date to be designated.

No doubt, the journey we make during this unprecedented and challenging time is like no other we've ever experienced. But it is my hope that as we participate together, from afar, in the magnificent richness of Holy Week and Easter, this journey will enrich our understanding of the great truth of God's true love for us, and bring us profound peace and joy.

In His Love... Msgr. Walter

Judas Not the Only One to Betray Jesus

Like Judas, sometimes we can allow our earthly desires to cloud our ability to see God's plans. We may also imitate Judas in putting our tasks ahead of receiving God's blessing. At the Last Supper, Judas received the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ then left before receiving the final blessing. Technically, Judas is the first person to leave Mass early. While legitimate reasons exist to leave Mass after Communion, every effort should be made to remain until we are sent forth — graced and blessed.

This Palm Sunday reading from Matthew's Gospel presents many other ways we, even unwittingly, betray Jesus. Many people do not accept the teaching of the Eucharist as the Real Presence — that is, Jesus Christ is truly present in the Eucharist: body, blood, soul, and divinity.

Thousands of Jesus' followers turned away in response to his pronouncement, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and

FOR REFLECTION

- In what ways do you deny Jesus?
- Do you believe the Eucharist is truly Jesus Christ — body, blood, soul, and divinity?
- Have you ever participated in the Holy Week liturgies? How can experiencing Holy Thursday and Good Friday liturgies enhance your Easter experience?

the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world" (Jn 6:51). Jesus did not call after the retreating hordes saying they misunderstood. No, instead he turned to those who remained and inquired if they would accept this difficult teaching or also leave. Peter speaks for those remaining: "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life" (v. 68).

This is the same Peter who will deny Jesus during the Passion. His declaration of fidelity reveals an intention to remain faithful; however, fear, confusion, and uncertainty rocked his faith.

He, like the rest of the apostles, when their Shepherd was struck, scattered like sheep. At the foot of the cross stood four people with faith we would be wise to emulate — the Blessed Virgin Mary, John the Evangelist, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the wife of Clopas. These are our examples for remaining faithful and trusting in God's plan, even when all seems lost.

Last, what about the question Jesus asks of his disciples when he finds them asleep in the Garden of Gethsemane: Could you not stay awake one hour with me? (see Mt 26:40). Could we not give even more than an hour to Jesus during Holy Week? We could do so by not only attending Palm Sunday Mass, but also Holy Thursday and Good Friday liturgies. Maybe this will be the year you come as a family to the Easter Vigil, regardless of the longer length of the Mass, so to give God the glory he deserves. Are you ready to fully enter into Easter like never before, aware of the sacrifice Christ made for our salvation?

“There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, he would have given it to us.”

– ST. JOHN VIANNEY

The Real Presence

“The mode of Christ’s presence under the Eucharistic species is unique. It raises the Eucharist above all the sacraments as ‘the perfection of the spiritual life and the end to which all the sacraments tend.’ In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist ‘the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained.’ This presence is called “real” — by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be “real” too, but because it is presence in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present.” — Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1374

At the Foot of the Cross

Mary Magdalene, traditionally counted among the women in Luke’s Gospel who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities, accompanied Jesus throughout the time of his earthly ministry. Mary Magdalene had the unique blessing of being present during most of the events of Jesus’ passion, death, and resurrection.

She is the first to see Jesus alive following the Resurrection, documented in this remarkable exchange in John’s Gospel: “Jesus said to her, ‘Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?’ She thought it was the gardener and said to him, ‘Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you laid him, and I will take him.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Mary!’ She turned and said to him in Hebrew, ‘Rabbouni,’ which means Teacher” (20:15–16). Mary Magdalene becomes then the apostle to the apostles, telling the Good News of Jesus’ resurrection. Do we not, too, wish to be apostles sharing this Good News as we celebrate Easter?

Prayer

Lord Jesus, thank you for the glorious week of blessings that await us. We offer you the last forty days of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving in thanksgiving as preparation to fully receive your Easter joy! May I seek to participate fully in all activities and services my parish will offer this Holy Week. Inspire my heart, removing all obstacles, to make a good confession of sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Beginning with Palm Sunday, through the Triduum, and into Easter, may I seek to encounter you, Jesus, as never before. Amen.

Jesus Is Crucified

Jesus had been arrested. He stood before Pilate, the governor, who asked Him, "Are You the king of the Jews?" "You have said so," Jesus replied.

Circle the 2 pictures that are the same.

Pilate asked the crowd, "What shall I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?" They all answered, "Crucify Him!" Then soldiers put a red robe on Him, and a crown of thorns on His head.

Connect the dots.

They put a staff in His right hand, knelt in front of Him and mocked Him. Then they led Him away to crucify Him.

They met a man named Simon, and made him carry the cross to a place called Golgotha (which means "the place of the skull").

Draw clouds in the sky.

From noon until 3 in the afternoon darkness came over all the land. And when Jesus had cried out in a loud voice, He gave up His spirit.

At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in 2 from top to bottom. The earth shook.

Trace the letters below.

When the soldiers who were guarding Jesus saw all that had happened, they were very afraid. They shouted, "Surely He was the Son of God!"

Pope's Holy Week Message | April 3, 2020

Dear Friends, Good Evening...

If you allow me, I would like to have a conversation with you for a few moments, in this time of difficulty and of suffering. I can imagine you in your families, living an unusual life to avoid contagion. I am thinking of the liveliness of children and young people, who cannot go out, attend school, live their lives. I have in my heart all the families, especially those who have a loved one who is sick or who have unfortunately experienced mourning due to the coronavirus or other causes. These days I often think about people who are alone, and for whom it is more difficult to face these moments. Above all I think of the elderly, who are very dear to me.

...We will celebrate Holy Week in a truly unusual way, which manifests and sums up the message of the Gospel, that of God's boundless love. And in the silence of our cities, the Easter Gospel will resound. The Apostle Paul says: "And He died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him Who died for them and was raised again" (2 Cor 5:15). In the risen Jesus, life conquered death. This Paschal faith nourishes our hope. I would like to share it with you this evening. It is the hope of a better time, in which we can be better, finally freed from evil and from this pandemic. It is a hope: hope does not disappoint; it is not an illusion, it is a hope. Beside each other, in love and patience, we can prepare a better time in these days. Thank you for allowing me into your homes. Make a gesture of tenderness towards those who suffer, towards children, and towards the elderly. Tell them that the Pope is close and pray, that the Lord will soon deliver us all from evil. And you, pray for me. Have a good dinner. See you soon!
