Happy Mother's Day!

The most important person
on earth is a Mother....
She has built something more magnificent than any Cathedral -
a dwelling for an immortal soul,
the tiny perfection of her baby's body....
Mothers are closer to God
the Creator than any other creature.

HAPPY Mother's Day

Dear Parish Family,

On this Mother's Day, all of us here at St. Matthew wish the mothers of our Parish a happy and blessed day. We thank you for all you have done and continue to do to fill our lives with love.

As a token of our gratitude for all you do for our Parish Family, we invite each woman to take home a geranium plant after all Masses. Please be sure to take just one plant so that every woman receives ones.

In Christ,
Fr. Frank
Fr. Frank Hoffmann, Pastor

PENTECOST SUNDAY is next Weekend: May 18-19

Next weekend we celebrate the birthday of our Church! Pentecost marks when the Holy Spirit came down on the Apostles and Mary and they received the gift of the Holy Spirit which allowed them to fulfill the works of Christ in the Church. Each of us have been given different gifts from the Holy Spirit, who is our Advocate and Guide... who leads us toward Him. The clergy wear red vestments to signify the work of the Spirit. It is also a custom at St. Matthew for the parishioners to wear red on the Day of Pentecost as well.

Msgr. Sabia Celebration, next Saturday, May 18 4:00pm Mass | Reception to follow in Great Room

In gratitude to God for the gift of his 60 years of priesthood and his 90th Birthday, please join us for a special 4pm Mass honoring Msgr. John Sabia.

Msgr. Sabia was ordained a priest on May 16, 1964 in St. Augustine Cathedral and was the Pastor of St. Jude Parish in Monroe for 36 years. He has been part of the St. Matthew Parish Family since his retirement, for the last 10 years.

A gentle, kind and humble man, Msgr. Sabia has given significantly to us here at St. Matthew. We thank him, we love him, we always remember him in our prayers. He will celebrate next weekend's 4:00pm Mass at St. Matthew, with Reception to follow. Join us in thanking him for his selfless, fruitful ministry in Christ.

The Institute for Catholic Formation provides learning opportunities for those who serve in liturgical and catechetical ministries in the Diocese.

Through online courses and face-to-face gatherings, the Institute offers opportunities for support, formation and mentoring for parish leaders and parents. We want all who are preparing to receive the sacraments and celebrate the Eucharist to be transformed by their encounter with Jesus.

When you make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, you support the ministries that continue faith formation. If you have not already given to the Appeal, we ask that you prayerfully consider a one-time gift or pledge. If you have already given, we thank you for your support.

Offer a Mass for a Loved One...

The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass, since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' Redemption. A Mass can be offered for a loved one who has died or a living person who has a special need, or who is ill or suffering. You can request a Mass in several ways: Call the Parish Office, email a request, or stop by the Office. A stipend of $10 is suggested with your Mass Intention.

Parishioner Zach Dilorio receives St. Thomas Aquinas Medal of Excellence

Congratulations to St. Matthew Parishioner Zachary Dilorio, an eighth-grade student at All Saints Catholic School who was selected this year as a recipient of the St. Thomas Aquinas Medal of Excellence. Zach will receive his award on Thursday, May 16 at the Diocesan Annual "Breakfast of Champions."

The medal is awarded to one deserving student from each graduating class in the Diocese of Bridgeport who exemplifies academic excellence and the faith-inspired goodness modeled by St. Thomas Aquinas, in addition to service to school and parish.

Zach will be attending Fairfield College Preparatory School in the fall and was recently awarded the Magis Scholarship by Fairfield Prep, given in recognition of his outstanding character and academic achievements. "Recipients of the Magis Scholarships receive an annual grant that is awarded to a student of impeccable standard of good citizenship and commitment to the Fairfield Prep mission."

Worship & Meditation

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A few months ago, I had the singular privilege of a private meeting with Pope Francis. We were a small group of pastors, composed largely of non-Catholics. The Holy Father wished to discuss our work for Christian unity. The phrase I remember him saying with greatest frequency was: Tutti dentro. It means, "Everyone in." He clearly wanted us to emphasize that the Church is made for the whole human race, not a select few. At the center of his concern was unity. We are all brothers and sisters, he said multiple times. The Church's primary longing is for everyone to join Her.

This longing is at the heart of this Ascension feast day. We hear the longest recorded prayer of the one whom Pope Francis represents. Jesus' concern is unity, praying to the Father, "that they may be one, even as we are one" (John 17:11). The deep unity of all people in Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit is what Jesus most desires. It is what he ascends to accomplish.

Do we have this same burning desire in our hearts, too? Or do we see Christian unity as an unrealizable dream? Or worse, as something that threatens our own narrow tribal interests? This feast is a wonderful time to consider our attitude toward Christian unity, and to commit to do whatever we can to foster it. It is the Pope's desire because it is that of Jesus — and it should be ours, too.
